

NOW THINKS OF MOTHER

MURDERER BAUMBERGER APPEARS CONCERNED THAT SHE GRIEVES.

She is on the Road to See Him—The Sheriff Lands His Prisoner in Jail at Fargo—A Speedy Trial Probable.

A dispatch from Crookston, Minn., dated July 12, says: Baumberger, the Cando murderer, was brought here by Sheriff Fadden, of Grand Forks, to-night on the Northern Pacific railway, to get him away from the mob, but on their arrival he learned that the mob was in pursuit and would be over on the Great Northern, which comes one hour later, so he left on the same train.

The party left Grand Forks in a hack, but were picked up a few miles out of the city. It is not known where the murderer is to be taken, but Bismarck is the reported destination.

Arrivals to-day from Cando confirm the reported plan to take the murderer back to Cando, give him a preliminary hearing, have him committed to jail and let the mob carry out the rest of the programme, which is to take the prisoner from the jail to the house where the massacre was committed, tie him fast inside, have the building well saturated with kerosene, fire it, and let the fiend expiate his crime.

It is now accepted as a foregone conclusion that the extraordinary punishment would be meted out to the murderer.

Sheriff McCune received a telegram from Sheriff Fadden to-day requesting him to come and get the prisoner. Fadden said in his dispatch: "The people are determined to lynch him and I cannot protect him much longer." Sheriff McCune will put the responsibility on the candidates to let the law have its course.

HE IS TAKEN TO FARGO.

FARGO, N. D., July 13.—Albert Baumberger, the Cando, N. D., murderer, was landed in Fargo jail at 7 o'clock this morning. He is haggard and worn with constant traveling and loss of sleep. Sheriff Fadden, of Grand Forks, brought him here fearing lynching.

Baumberger acknowledges that the published accounts of the murder are correct, and the only thing that seems to worry him is the grief of his mother, who is on her way from Pennsylvania to see him and whom he has not seen for five years. He will probably stay here a few days, and if Judge Morgan orders a special term of court to try him he will be taken back to Cando.

It is now generally believed that the people of that vicinity will submit to the law if he is given a prompt trial and sentence.

The Cando delegation which went to Grand Forks last night, and which was supposed to be bent on lynching, really meant to demand that the prisoner be returned to Towner county, where the crime was committed, and given prompt trial.
