

BOMBERGER IS IN JAIL

ADMITS HE KILLED THE KREIDERS.

The Only Thing That Seems to Worry Him
Is the Grief of His Mother, Who Is on
Her Way to Join Him—Will be Given a Trial by Jury.

FARGO, N. D., July 13.—Albert Bomberger, the Cando, N. D., murderer, was landed in Fargo jail at 7 o'clock this morning. He is haggard and worn with constant traveling and loss of sleep. Sheriff Fadden, of Grand Forks, brought him here, fearing lynching.

Bomberger acknowledges the published accounts of the murder are correct, and the only thing that seems to worry him is the grief of his mother, who is on her way from Pennsylvania to see him, and whom he has not seen for five years. He will probably stay here a few days, and if Judge Morgan orders a special term of Court to try him he will be taken back to Cando.

It is now generally believed that the people of that vicinity will submit to the law if he is given prompt trial and sentence. The Cando delegation which went to Grand Forks last night and which was supposed to be bent on lynching really meant to demand that the prisoner be returned to Zowner county, where the crime was committed, and given a prompt trial.
